FROM DR. KRISTINE TURNER PHD

As a professional in the industry, I wanted to remind you of a relatively new resource for you clients. Castle Rock Radio is proud to offer an internet radio show dealing specifically with divorce related issues.

The show, titled "Dealing with Divorce", airs on Friday mornings at 11:00am, and can be found at www.CastleRockRadio.com

About the Show: Here's an excerpt from one of the shows.

"Welcome to Dealing with Divorce. I am Dr. Kristine Turner, and not only am I a clinical psychologist who has specialized in helping families cope with divorce for 17 years, but I have been through divorce myself. I have four children, and I know firsthand how difficult divorce can be for families. Although divorce is difficult, it doesn't have to be devastating. There are clearly better and worse paths to take during and after divorce, but it is only through education that parents learn how to lessen the negatives impacts of divorce, leading themselves and their children down a better path to the future."

"The goal of this show is to bring that collective wisdom to one another. Each of us has expertise that can help others who are currently going through one of the toughest challenges life has to offer. By sharing this information with each other we can all become wiser about the choices we make for ourselves and our families as we continue through the next chapter(s) of Life After Divorce. In order to make this show a success, I want to hear from YOU! I want to hear your stories, your questions, your concerns, and your answers and advice. For every question raised, someone out there will have an answer, a snippet of advice to share. I will be inviting guests onto the show, and I will also be inviting listeners to send in their questions to be shared with the audience. Collectively we can create a community that better understands the trials and tribulations as well as the hopes and dreams associated with the challenge called "divorce".

We are always looking for guests on the show; experts who can share their advice with our listeners. If you are interested in appearing as a guest on the show, please send an email to Kristine.Turner@NewBeginningsCoParenting.com

In addition, if you are interested in advertising on the radio show, Castle Rock Radio can reach an audience of up to 90,000 listeners, please contact Kristine Turner at the email address listed above.
